People, i know ALOT of yall are guitting but they legit come back 2 seconds later. Like what? People that actually quit, im not talking abt you. But the FAKE quitters? Is annoying. You need to stop, you want "ATTENTION" it's legit obvious you want attention. You won't get it, cause YOU KNOW who you are. Here you are, gonna come back once more to cry because your getting your @$$ called out. Like, it's obvious your "faking" "oh because my parents said so" how would they find your account? Exactly. Your parents may use it, but STILL. You can't give out personal information. So forget it, fake guitters, you want attention. OH and how know they fake? They post art, or "i came back because my parents said i could!" 2 seconds later. Like shut up nobody cares..

Why am i saying this?

- 1. For people to understand to CONSIDER not FOLLOWING fakes.
- 2. So ya'll arent dumb enough to give them attention
- 3. They lie about being "mentally unstable" wouldnt you be Not on the GALLERY?
- 4. So i can warn yall..
