

Today was WAYYYY better than most days this week 🥰 like I got a 97 on a history test and a 92 on a religion test 👍 I went to open house for a high school I was thinking about going to. I have been struggling for the LONGEST to figure out what high school I wanted to go to. And now, I finally know! Most of my friends are going there so it won't be anything new! I'm seriously gonna make such good grades just so I can go to school there. I will literally do anything and everything in my power just to go to school. I'm telling you, the electives are CRAZY!! We have media arts, theatre, choir, art, etc etc. the lady even said there were too many to count 🤩 there's also SO MANY CLUBS. Gym (there's an actual gym.) dance, cheer, GAMING(there's e-sports which I'm def doing) the help desk WHERE U GET PAYED ACTUAL MONEY FOR WORKING THERE. The lunch room is awesome, and there are even some girls who started their own business! They make cookies and they look SO good, and they have a site there making for it so I might try and order some! There's a shop where you can buy merch, there's like this like family type class where half the year you cook, and the other half you sew and make all types of clothes. I WANT TO COOK AND MAKE CLOTHES TOO. And smth that goes w/ art is like cosplay. You can literally cosplay. They also take you to an anime con. 😞. I could make shirts and cups too. 😞. I would be able to go on trips to Italy, France, or Greece. 😞. Wtf does this school not have 🤩 I could learn Spanish, French, or Latin. 😞. The amount of sports I could take is unbelievable. 12 sports? And if I wanted I could do all of em. 😞. the classes even look fun. Do you even know how fun it looks to be learning about Chemistry and environmental science 😬 uh, duh ofc not. Even math looks fun 😂 got me over here learning what 2

+ 2 to the power of the first 3 digits of pi is 🦴 just know, ima be extremely smart in the next 2-3 business days. I even went with one of my friends and it was awesome 😎 I totally recommend the school. 10/10 smash 10 times in a row nonstop. Best thing since sliced bread, fr fr 🤞 😎 anyway this thing is WAYY too long so ima just head out- Remember I love you guys and I see u guys later!

Bye bye ❤️ (also remember s0td is in me bio!)
