

I love you, more than anyone,
But sometimes I hate you.
So when you ask yourself why,
just remember how I was too slow.
How I never tried to catch up.
and i will remember how you never waited for me.
You used to, what changed?
i will never again chase you like i once did.
because you will not wait for me like you once did.
I still love you, but I wish just once,
You would wait for me.
so just remember, i was too slow.
