

Do you know how many times I asked myself “does she really actually like me or is she just being nice”

I actually love you bby I promise we may not see each other but your the reason why I’m so happy your the reason I feel loved idk why you would ever think I wouldn’t love you

Well maybe because sometimes it doesn’t feel like it

Wdym “it doesn’t feel like it”

What do I mean we’ll think about it...we get mad I get it and idk just sometimes feels like you don’t like me

That’s when we talk about things baby

Mn...sorry I’m just upset ok...I’m scared that you’ll leave me like everyone else has in the past...

Baby don’t apologize everyone gets upset but we need to talk about things like that I love you dearly

Mn...but I’m sorry...if I sounded upset earlier it’s just these boys in my gym were being annoying and I was just not in a good mood today...

It’s fine everyone has their good days and bad days and today was just a bad day
