

AKOTAR: MY FANTASY WORLD

so ah... yeah!

LANGUAGE:

The people of Akotar speak Akotarian. The Akotarian language changes based on your social class. There's Slum Akotarian, Akotarian, and High Akotarian. Slum Akotarian was made by the people, and has more brutish sounds. Akotarian and High Akotarian are more similar.

RELIGION:

Most Akotarians follow the Fae belief in 'The Faceless god'. Those who follow her believe that showing their face is impolite, so they wear masks. Very few follow the Drakon belief in many gods, including Vida of the Sun, Lu of the Moon, and Galan of the Sea. Most people who worship the Drakon gods are of Drakon decent.

CIVILIZATION:

Akotar was previously ruled by a monarchy, but after the Pure Drakons mysteriously disappeared from the continent, they destroyed the equality of the system and created an unfair ruling class and a growing slum populous.
