

Omg, there is this kid in my class that is soooooo annoying! she is such a pick me! Like I was stuck doing a story in Spanish with her and my bestie and I this idea for it. She said it made her feel uncomfortable and that we would get in trouble. All I wanted to do was pretend my bestie died to give some drama. It's not like my bestie was hurt she agreed with me! Like girl bye. Also same day same time I was whispering to bestie about her crush and she got all mad because " we are a group so we should work together and not keep secrets from her" like girly no offense but no one likes you! Wh would we want share personal info with you?
