

So I want to make a comic series. Its going to be about the world my oc live in. but I need more oc's than my small crew so you can enter your ocs into the comic series. I need 22 other ocs you can enter as many as you like. (this oc will be apart of the lore of this world)

@st4rrr1ght

Name: Starr

age: abt 1000 (16 physically)

height: 180cm

details: Black hair with an electric blue streak, eyes of the same blue colour, white shirt and a light blue hoodie and navy blue

jeans info: She's a goddess, hence her age. She dislikes most humans for how they harm their planet but she doesn't actively get rid of them. She has near-infinite power but her most significant ones are listed below

Powers: Summoning lightning, shapeshifting (any animal, but her best is her dragon form), life-related powers

(giving extra lives to those worthy of it)

(I suck at drawing people)

Dragon form appearance (idk if ur gonna want her to transform into a dragon since she's part of the lore)

Black scales, golden ridges on her back (from base of head to mid-tail), glowing bright blue markings on her sides (kinda like WoF Seawings), 4 legs, 2 wings, black wing struts, electric blue wing membranes (fading to green at the edges), golden antler-like horns, electric blue eyes

(I mean if she wants she can transform into other kinds of dragons but this is her true dragon form)

Type: Light

Void
