2 Corinthians 1:3-4

Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion, and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves receive from God.

What does it mean?

This verse is saying to praise God the Father, because he comforts us and our troubles.

How does it apply to my life?
It applies to your life because you should praise God when he comforts you in your hard times.
Because He comforts you, you should comfort others when they are troubled. You should shine the light of God on others and act Godly.

Prayer:

God and father, please comfort me in my troubles, help me to comfort others and act Godly to everyone around me, even if they don't act g
