

Today was fun ig (don't know what other word to describe it lol)

I accidentally stapled my finger 🤕

But I'm alive

This is your sight to not fidget with staplers when talking to ppl

Sooo I was talking to my teacher cause it like talking to a friend (she's 1 year older than my big sis 26) and I was also talking to 🌊 aswell and my dumb self was fidgeting with her stapler and I pressed it down into my finger on accident... lol 🤡

In Spanish 🌊 asked me for help and we sit in the same table thing kinda and he scooted so close to me like REALLY close but I didn't say anything cause...

I don't mind 😊

I know in some schools they teach kids other languages but is it like based off of state orrrrrr???

Cause in my school it was Spanish and my teacher said it was because we're in Florida so yk there's a lot of Hispanics but my godsister does French in her school and she's also in Florida 😬😬😬

I got dandelions by Ruth. B stuck in my head

Idk why I rly want to go to a gala or ball but live in the Victorian era

Like I would totally dress like this If I had the confidence 😞

Byeeee have an amazing day ❤️❤️❤️
