

Feeling sad, might tell you about my 2 year vacation to hell. It took place in Kenya, back in 2015. I was 4-5 yrs of age. It was our family's first vacation ever. We lived in an apartment too small for all of us. Drugs, homelessness, + murderers/ kidnappers/thieves everywhere. So much pollution + sickness in the place. Went to school for 6 days a week, 6 a.m- 4 p.m. It was awful, the teachers would beat you with 4 inch wide, 7 feet tall sticks covered in splinters and big/thick metal pipes. Some staff would waltz into random classes, nitpick a random student + beat them. If you wore your school tie wrong you'd be beat, if the teachers wanted a power flex you'd be beat, if you were too talkative then you'd be beat. They'd put their full strength into each swing, smiling like psychos. I bet they only took the profession so they could let their anger out on us kids. After school we still weren't done, we were enrolled to a program. It was worse than by a hundredfold. It took place in my apartment building, teacher's house. All the kids in the complex had to go. The teacher was an overcontrolling, narcissistic maniac. We'd sit on his dirty carpet for hours immediately after school. We worked without a break, our legs went numb, we'd get dizzy, + we'd lose our voices. If we stopped then he'd beat us to a pulp with a plastic rod covered in his spit. He beat us so bad we'd cry and cry and couldn't stop crying even if we struggled to breathe. He'd grab our dresses + hijabs so we couldn't move and strike us for 10 minutes or more. He was a disturbed man, he made us bleed, gave us bruises + permanent marks on us. He was a pedo too, he'd kiss + bite all the little girls cheeks + grab their waists and hug them even if they were uncomfortable (including me). He'd force all of the girls to cook + clean his apartment when we were suppose to be learning. He'd marry his 16 yr old female students, get them pregnant, divorce them, + move to the next. He had it out for us american/European kids, not just him but everyone in Kenya. They were all overtly racist to us since us American and Brits were useless, good for nothing, dumb waste bins. He controlled the entire apartment, forced all the moms to cook for him + had a schedule for it. They all agreed like it was normal, but if one mom didn't cook for him he'd beat the life out of their kid if they attended the program. Also he watched my family through the windows in the middle of the night. He roams the apartment halls stalking families. He's still in contact w/ us.
