

A star so bright shining in the night up so high for all to admire for all to see
but no one knows how bright you shine to me

You are as warm as a fire a comfort of no other the brightest light in my dark time to shine above
Why need any other?
I don't need a lifetime for it's my star I love

Happy
Valentines
day Ashe
