

As I look at Pollo play with his ball I start to wonder why Way-Len came all beat up to apologize to me. I then hear a knock on my door “Coming!” I exclaimed, I walk to the door and look through the peak hole, it’s Apollo and his sister. I open the door and let them in “Hey Sinny” Apollo said giving me a kiss on the cheek. Apollo and his sister take off their shoes and sit on the couch. “So, are you two dating?” Vera said smirking, looking at me and Apollo. “Yes we are” Apollo said with a smile on his face. Apollo pats his leg and Pollo quickly runs to him and starts jumping up and down. I proceeded to sit on the couch and watch Apollo play with Pollo. Vera soon stood up and looked out the window, Vera jumped and yelled “WOW THERE IS A WHOLE SNOW STORM OUT THERE”. “Vera don’t yell it’s impolite” Apollo said, picking up Pollo and putting him on his lap. “Oh! Sorry” Vera said in a quiet voice. I smile, Vera can be so silly sometimes, though she is the oldest sibling of Apollo’s, she she acts a lot like a kid but she is really mature. Apollo pulls me without knowing and kisses me forehead two time and then my cheek. “Why are you so cute?” He asks, “Pinocchio your nose is growing” I said cupping his face with both my hands, he sits me on his lap making me face him, he lays his head on my neck and I start breathing fast. “Get a room you two” Vera says looking disgusted. “You’re just jealous that you’re single” Apollo said, kissing my neck softly. I hit his head and he looks at me, “why did you do that for” He said rubbing his head. “Because your sister is here and I don’t want her to see what you do to me” I whisper. He smirks and slowly bites my shoulder. I blush, “YOU FREAKING JERK” I yelled at him and pushed his head away. Vera looked at Apollo, “So is this what you two do in your spare time?” She said smirking. Apollo nods and smiles, “Give me a niece and I’ll accept let you two do whatever you guys want to do to each other whenever I’m here” Vera said smiling and nodding her head. “No males can’t have babies and plus we are too young” I said turning to Vera, Apollo nods. We all sit there in silence since Vera fell asleep and Apollo is looking out the window. I look at Apollo and hug him from behind, “I’d say something really weird right now but my sister is here” Apollo said luring his head a bit, “you’re so stupid” I said, laying my head on his shoulder. “You have such good clothing style, I’ll be a shame if they got torn off” Apollo said, turning his body over too me, he pulls me closer to him, “Yeah… not today buddy” I told him slowly pushing off me,

“was it worth the try though?” He said, I shook my head with a smile.
