

Singing in the garden,
Her voice medolic and sweet
No one around to hear her
No one except me

Join together side by side
Two voices tangled together in harmony
I give you a fleeting smile
Please come back to me

Oh my Clematis
Don't ever leave my side
For if you were to disappear
I fear that I may cry

My universe, my god,
My one light in life
Please don't leave my all alone
How would I survive

Push forward I must,
Despite sorrow, rushing in like a raging sea
Oh my dear Clematis
Please come back to me
