how afraid I am to know that my crush knows I like him because people can't keep secrets anymore and they act like they are stupid and worthless to make you feel bad and forgive them. When you still don't say u forgive them, people think ur selfish because that person has family/home problems and u dont care! now all you have are friends that wont even help u when u fall so ur alone. u started to just rely on notability but ur parents think ur addicted and you start to fight with them 24/7. With all of this drama ur trust issues bubble breaks and now u cant even trust the people close to u, u start to have more mental break downs, and u talk to urself without even knowing. u started writing everything down but ur afraid someone will find it. NOW I'm Depressed thanks to these selfish people! But they got everyone to make them believe that they did nothing by swearing on god but I can tell when people lie! -kholoud-2011
