

Dear @loverscree,

A little birdie told me that you are being mean or hating on froggyAj? Am I correct? I just wanted to tell you that if you hate on my friend again. I will have no hesitation to report you. Just because she is lesbian does mean that you get to pick on her. For your information I am bisexual. I will not tolerate with haters. You can stop now or you can keep doing it and you will be reported. Pick on my friend again and I will keep reporting you until you stop.

Sincerely,
@mischief luna
