IRL
UPDATE!

Currently Watching:
Squid Game S2
So intense!
I ♥ the cast

I love my friends so much 😊

The amount of lore that I have from just the half of this school year alone is crazy. first of all yay I'm in hs now !! so I made new friends and stuff and have had fun w my current friends as well and it's all yayaya anyways the crazy part is that the people who I know irl who also were users on here (only one person I'm talking abt, not both of them) I stopped being friends with but for very "oh" reasons (which is kinda ironic since they ended up saying "oh" whenever I said smth weird/cringy though online here theyd lowk act cringy and weird too so okay then I guess?) (idk they just ended up being very fake and said weird things about people w special needs, glorified s/a and supposedly pretended to be part of lgbtq just to say a CERTAIN word, not to mention they did very ...uhhh stuff online, not to mention just was not a good friend and would talk massively abt people, even those we weren't friends with/knew well or had relations to, would also talk abt our own friends)

↳ ended up guilt tripping me w past events when we stopped being friends

(this is also a person I've mentioned a good amount of times on this acc, I'm not gonna outright point fingers just to keep a bit of anon but err yeah drama ig) I'm still friendly w the other ex-user and they're really cool and chill (I love their art and they're so creative but I don't talk to them much anymore)

I've also been trying to post more on here yet ig you need a subscription for unlimited access and to write/draw freely (only a certain amount of strokes a week) so again this kinda prevents me from drawing more on here, though I'll try my best to make small sketches or see if I CAN buy the subscription (though I'm not sure since idk how active I'll be on here)

I'm also active on:

tiktok -> @.mysteriousmoon (though it is supposed to be getting banned)

instagram -> @_mysteri0usmoon

pinterest -> @mysteri0usmoon

Way better art/stuff there :o

idk but here's my little irl update! I hope all of you guys are doing good 🤗🤗

-love from bulldzer
