

Okay, this isn't working. I don't have any reason to stay here. I don't draw, and this is a community of artists. You guys have taught me a lot and we've had fun times together, and I genuinely love all of you. However, this point is non-negotiable.

I'm going down to the river.

Farewell, until and unless we meet again.

I'll stick around just long enough for the farewell comments (they make me feel special :>).

Special mentions (y'all are my favorites)
