‘Bzzt! Bzzt!’

It seems like your alarm went off earlier than usual... since you woke up earlier than usual, you decide to take a walk. While you are walking, you enter a park. When you enter the park, you hear a noise that sounds like crying.

“Wahhh! Wahhh!” cries a little girl. She seems to be homeless. She’s rubbing her eyes. She also seems to be around 7 years old.

What do you do? Do you:

A: Walk over to the child to help her?

Or:

B: Ignore her and walk by her.

(Warning: Once you make a decision, there is no turning back.)
