

All of my grade went on a field trip to see a play. Anyway the dude playing God was barefoot the entire time on stage. Bro I don't want to see your dawgs! All of the other cast members were wearing sneakers. When we went to leave and go back to school someone wrote, "GOT SALT?" on the back window. Also one of my friends who is a senior was in stage crew!

Is it me or science teachers are sus and chill at the same time. I can't be the only one who thinks this right?

I got about 4-5 tests for the next two weeks. Three are math tests! 😭 Also MY MATH TEACHER GAVE ME HOMEWORK ON A FIELD TRIP DAY LIKE WHATTTTTT!!! Got to study so can't post that much.
