

For my Fireflies

My little lights / Fireflies ♡

We did it! I cannot express how much I adore my little lights... So being said, I'd like to thank you all for three hundred followers. No matter what I do I do not think I could say how much this means to me. I never thought we would get this far! ♡

So as a special I will not only be drawing a full colored piece. I will also be giving out my discord server! ♡ because I cannot draw every single one of my fireflies I will be doing a fanart competition!

In this you will need to do these things:

1. Join my discord
2. in my server I will make a fanart gc
3. post the art there
4. and wait till April 29th (the day after my birthday)

How to Join my discord!

1. go to my bio & friend my discord
2. once you have done that wait either a few hours to a day.
3. once i have friended you back just simply ask for the server <3
4. read the rules than feel free to chat!
