Okay, lol, so since the note I posted explaining me leaving got quarantined, Im going to put it shortly: I'm not leaving because of mental health, drama, or even my parents. I'm leaving because I feel it's time for me to grow and mature past this app, and I don't mean that in a way where it's like "hahaaaa Im better than you guys bcuz Im gonna grow outside of nota". I mean like, I think I'm going to wait to share my art with the world when I improve even more. So thank you guys so much for being her with me and being so supportive and kind, you are the best community I could ask for. Also, I will be leaving the night after this note is posted. I love you all!
