

Hey, so the December paper will be a bit late because I will be putting the Miku contest results in there. So expect the paper sometime around January 5th or later. But putting that aside...

Submit what you want in the paper using the tag #dec24paper! (Deadline Jan 5)

But if you're too busy to make anything, put ideas of what you want me to add in the comments (no 100% guarantee they'll be in the paper) Ex: a article about (blank), a section dedicated to (blank), etc.

Also, please give me drama/news to write about! I haven't been the most active, so I'm not sure what I missed, ty!
