

I went to a boring event today. So I have four cousins. Me, my brother, and my cousin were literally playing squid game. We first played red light green light, I DIED MORE THAN 15 TIMES. Where one of us dies we become the creepy doll. Then we played glass bridge, my personal favorite. One of us jumps and the one of us stands in the front and tells us if we died. Every time my cousin died he does pose 28 and acts as he really died. We played the final battle but we had to stop cuz my bros could not stop almost crashing out on each other. 🦴🦴🦴

After that we played block blast, although their highest score was 3000. I think that's pretty bad, to be honest.
