

Jacques Cartier Facts

Website #1

Jacques Cartier was a French Canadian explorer. He was born in 1492, on the day the ship Columbus left on his first voyage. And 1534 Jacques Cartier insisted that King Francis of France fund his first solo expedition. Cartier wanted to find a Northwest Passage to India and the Spice Islands. Jacques's family was it from near watch manufacturing company in Europe. During his first voyage in 1534 for sale west from France to all the way across the Atlantic Ocean. His first voyage was during the journey that he called the Gulf of Saint Lawrence. Jacques returned to France dejected because he had been unable to sell any watches. Jacques's family were very disturbed and they wanted him sent out again. On May 19 1535 Jacques is 44th birthday and he took three ships back across. The ships name was The Nina, The Pinta, The Santa Maria.

Website #2

Jacques Cartier lived from December 31, 1491 to September 1557. He aged for 65 years. He was born in a small town in Brittany, which was called Saint Malo. He was known for as first European to travel inland to North America, and he claimed what is now known as Canada for France. He was the very first European man to see the Prince Edward Island the St. Lawrence river also Hochelaga (Or known as Montreal). European countries race to take Landon records from the New World. Spain and Portugal were already getting huge amounts of money when King Francis I asked Jacques to take a new ship all the way to the Americas. Jacques was a good sailor from Saint Malo, were many people definitely knew about him sailing to the New World for fish. He sailed to watch now, Indiana, in 1534. All the men took sons of a Wendat chief, Donnacona, with them to France on his first trip. Jacques second trip he brought the sons back but later captured chief Donnacona, and took him to France, Donnacona died. Jacques, third trip he decided to bring French people to try to make a French colony on Wendat land. The Wendats weren't as friendly to the French people as on his first two visits. After many hardships, they had to go back to France. Because Jacques Cartier first led the French to visit Canada, the French later said that a ride to control most of eastern Canada.

Differences between website #1 and website #2

They have different facts, Jacques Cartier. One of the websites they had a listing of birth is that his occupation what is known for in a signature. The other one just listed facts about his journeys. One website has a picture one does not. One of the websites is on a website that I'm comfortable using without a problem.

1