

his leadership role that brought him here. He became leader of the apostles and is often described as their spokesperson in gospels. This is why I believe that he should be my confirmation saint.