

Well now I know I'm crazy

So basically I saw this idea online and it was a person making an IRKEN. JOURNAL.

Basically they were doing like analogies of irken tech and stuff and writing in irken, which is SUPER. COOL. Also, credits to OG idea.

Anyways, I'm gonna do one of those and my invader person will be called Invader Xat. :)

Yeah wish me luck (the irken alphabet is extremely hard to write and memorize help)
