

Hey guys!

So between Posting, piano, school, and reading (of course) I've also had writers' block. Fortunately I've had some inspiration and have started writing again. I have also made some changes and will soon be re posting the Introduction and will post chapter one. Shout out to @hermione-granger and @annabxllle. I MADE THE PLAY!!! We are doing the Little Mermaid and I am a chef and a tentacle (LOL). To everyone, comment if you want the intro and chapter one on the same post.
