

I look at my left hand and smile, to be honest this is the first time Vera has ever cared about my injuries, I mean she cares about me but not about my injuries since I always tend to treat them myself. I open my bedroom door and walk down stairs, I trip again due to my right foot stepping on something sharp I lift up my foot and see a broken piece of glass. I sit on the end of the stairs and grab my right foot with and slowly pull the broken glass out, my foot quickly starts to bleed. I quickly take of my shirt and hold my wound, I call Vera down stairs and she quickly runs down. "I need help again" I managed to say without sounding sarcastic. She runs up and comes back down again with the first aid kit, "what happened to your foot" She asked me taking my shirt off my foot. "I don't know, I was walking down and all of a sudden I felt extreme pain on my right foot" I answered her back with a worried look. "Your wound isn't to deep but it sure does need to be disinfected and it need at least 2 layers of roller tape" she said, as she takes out the disinfectant spray and roller bandage, she sprays my foot, I hiss "I know it hurts, but it's for the best" she said, gently starts to cover my foot with the roller bandages. She then stands up and walks away with the first aid kit. I then stood up and limped to the kitchen and grabbed a cup and filled it up with water. Two hours later I hear the door knock, I limp to the front door and open it, I see the pizza guy and take the pizzas I then pay him with the money Vera left on the counter. "You look familiar" the pizza guy said, with happiness in his voice. I look closely and close the door, I don't feel like talking to anyone I look familiar too. I take the pizza to the table and grabbed a slice, I walk to the living room and sit on the couch I turn on the tele and see my face on the news, I quickly turn off the tele. And walk up stairs and walk to my room, I open the door and walk inside I quickly close the door behind me and look out the window. Vera walks in "You're famous Apollo!" She said enthusiastically. I slowly nodded my head, "are you not happy you were able to play a major role in a major movie?" She asked, I slowly nodded again. I hate my life. as you are able to read right now, I got to play in a major role, which got my face in many news articles and magazines. I can't really see why it's a good thing but hopefully people will get over the fact they will see a new actress everywhere, and I hope sinny won't be disappointed that I didn't tell I him. "Vera look, you know I never wanted to become an actress" I tell her with a disappointed look on my face, “I know but you know how mum negotiates with people and famous producers” she said, with a slight disappointed smile. She walks out and closes the door behind her.
