

My parents think that my bestie is toxic. And a few months ago, my mom told me to never have any contact with her again. But I do have contact with her seeing as she's my bestie. My sister (she's 9) snitched on me for still being besties with her. So yesterday, my mom basically told me that I can NEVER have contact with her again or I'll be punished.

I'm not gonna do that cuz she's basically my therapist friend. But I'm DEFINITELY not talking to my sister about her anymore.

Have a Kookie and some Suga for a better month.

Love you 💜💜
