

HAZARD

wants to sell you something (cyanide laced tea)

has killed about 137-256 peoplehe lost count a long time ago

(retractable)

googly eyes he sewed on his name is sim-jim hazard makes a rattling noise

when he walks (most say by the time you hear that noise, it's too late)

Traumatized
but isn't really aware of that.

He's completely normalized killing people - his parents also worked as assassins

his dad also just did it for the funsies

Despite all this, he is very friendly - like he would help an old lady cross the street kinda friendly

- Employee of the month
- Straight A student energy

- wasp
+ maned
wolf

> Aliteral
fucking
assassin

He's built quite the reputation for himself - many people refer to him as a sort of modern cryptid
