They said when i get older that i would find the one
But now im sittin' here drunk with nobody i can trust
See all these happy couples but i got no one it sucks
Cigarette between my lips and i dont give a f
Love sucks, no one ever stayed
Love sucks, I cry everyday
Love sucks, no one can relate
I know it sucks yet i, still wait
(smooth and sad guitar beat)
Everyday i wake up, cold and alone
I hug myself and tell myself that, "you are made stone,
Cause even when they try real hard, you never break"
But even that can't stop myself from saying "I'm a mistake"
Love sucks, no one ever stayed
Love sucks, i hate it everyday
Love sucks, no one can relate
It's been so long i think i'm nearing my fate

Love sucks i wish i never stayed
Love sucks my exes made me afraid
Love sucks all the attention that I paid
The pain really hit me like a grenade
And all this time
It stabbed me like a knife
Like all the sorrow is ending my life wight exclude
Like my heart is crippling
The waves are rippling
The bell of Hell is ringing
Yet i'm still here singing
Love sucks, no one ever stayed
Love sucks, i hate it everyday
Love sucks, no one can relate
All the sadness is drowning me, I think today is my date
(hum lyrics)
End
