

Here I go ranting about smth that's popular that I don't know why it is: Dandy's world edition

As usual I would like for someone to explain to me why it's just.. everywhere, I can't go 2 minutes in Roblox or nota without seeing something about it.. I seen a yt short about a player/character being zesty with another player/character who I think was doing a task, so.. is it something like among us? I know that the Flowey wannabe is evil and wants to k*ll everyone or smth.. but back to Roblox, is everyone else drowning in friend requests? I been getting them NONSTOP, like guys.. like leave me alone.
