The way I literally had to take a screenshot of my drawing bc the note kept glitching out from how many strokes I was adding to it until I actually cannot enter the note anymore T-T

Sorry yall, I wasn't able to upload the actual thing to the gallery, but have a glimpse of the finished drawing anyway... It's half baked but not too bad, spent like 8 hrs. on it. This is a screenshot of half of the drawing, & I finished drawing in the rest around the mouth & lower side of face in this note. (it's funny running the whole eraser thru it lol)

♡ ♡ On a brighter note, THANK YALL SM FOR 200 FOLLOWS!!
