

ok guys, so we need to discuss things here. I'm talking about the preppy club that @a-nina-magdalene started, ok. (Btw ty for making me vice ily) I get it that ppl don't like the preppy aesthetic or just don't like preppies in general, but commenting rude things etc is only gonna make ppl feel worse. It's not gonna magically eliminate all preppies or smth ok? Nina is one of the sweetest ppl here in notability, and she's only going to report u if you are doing smth wrong, like every other acc will do. There are loads of ppl that are so idk like upset by this- it's not that deep, ok. But, nevertheless there are also tons of ppl who care- and thank you to those who have joined the preppy club so far! It's just really annoying when certain individuals don't care, and ik this sounds rude etc, but we are only trying to make friends here.
