

hey tributes

so the reaping day stories are finished! I hope you enjoyed the tales of Orchid, Mackenzie, Kylie and Carper <3 next up is a story on a bullet train from the districts to the capitol, and then some training!

but after that will be some interviews! I'll be interviewing your characters, but if you want to take a more personal approach, then feel free to write your own interview or answer some of the questions below!

Just remix this note and choose some to answer, or add your own questions!

no due date but the sooner the better ;)

April Woodwork – District 7

- How are you feeling about being here tonight?

A bit nervous, but it should be interesting meeting people.

- Tell us a bit about yourself and your life back in District 7

Pretty basic?

- What strengths do you bring to the games?

Why exactly should I reveal that?

- Any special skills you have, or have been working on in training?

Same answer as the last question

- How have your mentors been preparing you for the arena?

Same answer to this one as well

- What or who are you fighting for in the games?

My family, also 'cause I was kinda forced.

- Is there anyone back home you'd like to send a message to?

No.

- How are you finding the Capitol and its people? Any surprises or favorite moments so far?

Not really, the Capitol is far more.. glitzy than I expected

- What do you think of life in the Capitol compared to your home life?

The Capitol is full of spoiled people, who don't work for everything.

- Have you considered any alliances with other tributes?

No, but I have talked to Logger before if that counts. Separate from here, I mean.

- Who do you see as your biggest competition among the other tributes?

The older kids, who may be stronger. But, also, the short one, what's her name.. She may be pretty agile.

- How do you plan to handle the challenges and dangers of the arena?

I plan to use what I've already learned from my district.

- What are your thoughts as the games come closer and closer?

That this will be a game of survival, not being spoiled. I see your tactics.

- Any final words for the audience and potential sponsors watching tonight?

Nope.

- What legacy do you hope to leave behind?

No idea. Not dying first.
