

Hii guyss, its me again

Its 10:40 pm rn and i have some tea ☕

So: My mum and the family of my dad are not in a very good relationship

My aunt was the "favourite child" so my grandparents would always care about her
She is now 37 ig and got married last year

Thats kinda late in our family but my aunt always got everything as she wanted
Since my parents are married the family of my dad always has smth agains ny mom.

Not very much but everytime a lil bit
(Btw my dad's family is rather "rich" and my mom's "normal")

My uncle lives in dubai and actually had to come last week to germany but smth was in his family's house
so he had to go there to do some things

Oops i drifted away from the story:

My aunt always asks me and my brother to make wishlists till today and send them to her

Today also my aunt asked me if i could check the shoe size of my father cuz she wanted to buy some for him on Christmas 🎄

I forgot to make my wishlist and we werent home today (my brother had guitar thing) so i couldnt sent her

I asked my mum the shoe size of my father and she said that he didnt need more shoes and somehow she was UPSET 😡

Then when i wanted to make my wishlist she was like: why are making a wishlist, they are not going to buy you the stuff you want! Go lean for math!

And so on. So i couldnt send the wishlists 😞😞😞

That was it
