

Ok, so I'm really getting serious about writing, and im trying to figure out designers for Tunnels book one. Im gonna try and draw it, but does anyone else want to help me? It's going to be Newt with his back to the 'camera'. He's surrounded by walls, with a path ahead. It's dark, but dimly lit, and on one wall there are 'claw' marks. Around the dim light, there is going to be a. Yellowish greenish color, like a haze. (It's the gas)

Anyways, figured i say something. Please help and try, but it is up to you
