

I love doing contests but I play to win and on the Gallery that usually means I'm creaming a bunch of kids which uh makes me feel bad. So I'm hosting my own contest!

But I need some prompt ideas!

I have a few but would anybody actually join the Sonic character or oc contest? So here's a few ideas below to pick from or recommend your own. I'll pick the final prompt and make a post inviting ppl to join.

- Sonic character/oc
- Robot design
- TV show fanart
- Picking some random emojis
- Dream monster (like a nightmare)
- Object head
- Human/non-human versions of a character
- Draw This in Your Style
- Redraw one of my characters

And don't worry! I know @astro_247 is also hosting a contest a lot of users are doing so I'll wait until that's over to start my own
