

Basically so when my dad was like 13 he got into fights & stuff, he got a ton of scars from stuff like a knife on his shoulders and a scar on his heart and a really dark and long reddish scar on his leg. Like 4 example when sm1 tried 2 knife him in the back when he thought he tricked him, he used this really big long stick thing and bashed them in the head. Another scar, when he was 13 he could stick his finger in it. He also told me stories about when he beat a group of people (typical buff guys) and he had a lot of scars he showed me himself lol my dad's the coolest
