

GUYS!!! So recently, I've been watching some shows and stuff and if you like dance moms here are some shows that I think you'd like!

1. Raising Asia- this one is all about Asia's life after she left dance moms. She does performances and her mom fights with people and it's great

Where to watch: you can watch it on the lifetime app (its free!!!)

2. Leagally Blonde: The Search For Elle Woods- this is about casting Elle Woods on Broadway. I'm a theater kid so i do auditions all the time so I think it's cool cause of that but also it's like a competition and the girls have drama.

Where to watch: it's no longer streaming anywhere (it's from 2007) so you can watch it on YouTube. Just search it up and a YouTube channel will come up that has all the episodes but episode 6, which you can find by just searching up "Leagally Blonde the search for Elle woods episode 6", and you will find it.
