

Ok so first I wanna talk about the new mean girls movie!! ❤️❤️

Cast:

So first we have Reneé Rapp I absolutely love her I think she is hilarious pls never give her media training ever!

Auli'i Cravalho is sooo good as Janis her voice is amazing she's grown up so much since Moana!!! The Damian was also amazing these two harmonized the whole time and it was beautiful

Bebe wood was amazing as gretchen

Karen (Avantika) absolutely devoured her song she sang so well

Angourie Rice (Cady) — I had never heard of her before this and I looked her up and found she was in Spider-Man plus she's actually Australian which is cool. She's got a lovely personality but I think her singing style is not the same as Cady's. Cady in the musical has more of a musical theatre sound and she sings more like something you would find on folkore, so the character ended up being different- Super cool- but different from the one I know. They replaced several songs and changed some to make it fit her. When she tried to sing musical theater in "revenge party" I really didn't like it (my opinion)

I'll do a post about the songs later.
