A bit of backstory:

We don't know her age but the legend says that she's 1000+ yrs old. She looks like she's 18 but she won't admit what is her age. She was born in hell but is dating an angel in heaven, but then, when her bf tried to sneak out to come to his house, he fell into the hole of the human's world. Once she learn this she ran and jumped into the hole (what we call, the hole of earth) but she didn't change like all the other. When she was still in hell, she was 18, but then landed on earth and stayed looking 18. Then she meets her bf (that also hasn't changed forms) and they lived together. They stayed uncaught for 10000 yrs.

But one day, scientists were trying to find subjects and they found VII. She refused to go but they got her by force. Her bf betrayed her by then saying that he was a scientist. She then lived 20 yrs in the science lab. When she got the talk to her ex, she convinced him to be a scientist in the lab. They accepted but her real goal is to free the other subjects.
