

Hey my berries,

So I said that once I get 200 followers I will reveal a really big notability secret of mine.

Before revealing it I just want to say thank you so much for all my 202 followers it really means a lot to me so a shout out to all of you.

Ok now my big notability secret is that I am also @abc_aesthetic, I made that account because I thought that it was just that I didn't really have much of a catchy name for my account and that that was affecting how many followers I have so I tried experimenting by putting a name that wasn't my literal name but I kinda had trouble spreading all my posts out evenly so I use @v_valeska more.

If you could go and follow @abc_aesthetic en that would mean a lot to me.
