

Part twooooo!!!

Stupid with love- I loved this song in the musical, but in the movie, they put a ukelele under it and made it slow??? Again this made Cady different. This song especially (in the musical) showed Cady's mind and how she's like a little girl, but the movie failed to show that cause it was slow. This song in the movie was a cool version of it, I would have loved it just released as a bonus track and not in the movie. Becuase specifically for this it didn't fit cady.

Apex predator- so they gave Cady's verse to Janis and Damian (prob cause she would have to belt and she can't do that). Janis and Damian did the whole thing in harmony, so it was super cool and really good, but the issue was janis and Damian sang "and though janis si great she does not have this power" and "janis can't do that". Which was kinda weird. This part was supposed to be Cady's inner thoughts and the begining of her wanting to be cool. I did love the adaptation of this song tho it was good!

What's wrong with me- this song was super cute. Bebe wood did a great job with the emotion of it and I love her voice I cried. Soooo good!!!

Karen's song- again they used the iPhone thing which was smart. The girls voice was sooo good and she did a bunch of cool riffs and the choreo was fun I loved it
