

Vent cause I need it!:

So I'm in my school's orchestra (I play violin) and we're doing this thing called chamber music night where we get into small groups and perform for our parents and classmates. My group is... not prepared, at all! The first girl is good but just doesn't really care that we're failing, I can play my part just I have this this where I accidentally pluck random strings, ALL THE TIME! But then the last girl... I don't think she knows the difference between a half note and a quarter cause she plays the WRONG THING AND IT SOUNDS REALLY BAD! we're playing the same rhythm but different melody but when I play:

She plays:

Any way what I'm saying is she ignores the rest and started at the wrong time is what it sounds like

Also did I mention we have to perform for the class tomorrow! We were told to practice but she has hockey ever single day! (Which is prolly why she is so bad)

And to make matters worse I'm gonna freak out and sound even more terrible than I normally do!

FUN TIMES!
