

Sad story-

But I was at the vet w/ my sick dog, Bubba/Koda. He got his nickname "Bubba" from me, when I was younger, My second word was "Bubba" when Koda came up to me. I said "Bub- Bubb.. Bubba" Now back to 2 days ago, I was in the vet with Bubba being sick and laying there. The doctors and my parents left to speak. When this kid who were gonna call "Red" ran into the room. He started crying saying, "I WONT LET YOUR DOG LIVE IF MINE DIED. He pulled the plug. (The one where it helps them live). He stopped coughing and wagging his tail. He lying there. I told my parents that Red went in there and pulled it.
