

My christmas oc:

Misty

bracelet

Misty is a dryad, hence the ears and the green blush. After about 300 years, she got bored of being confined to the forest she was in, and wanted to travel the world. She found a way to keep a branch of her tree perpetually alive, even if it's disconnected from the tree. She made it into a bracelet that she always wears so that she can travel the world. She has to return to her forest every christmas, though, or the branch will die.

Winner gets a new oc and a drawing

Things that could help u win:

- background (even just a simple one)
- Detailed (skill doesnt matter much, but add little details that can make the whole thing come together)
- Poses (I know these are hard, so it wont bring you down if you don't, but I will appreciate the effort if you do a pose!)
- Incorporating the story

Things that wont help you win:

- stealing art!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
- Being lazy about it

Other things:

- gender bending is ok
- You can draw her in a different outfit if you want, just keep the color scheme of red and green.
- Quality over quantity
- Keep the design roughly the same.
- Ill judge /mostly/ by effort put into the drawing, not how good the style is, though if you have a cool style that /is/ an advantage.
- contest ends dec 26th (you have until midnight on the 26th)
