

Hey there so uhm, i have art block so my solution is to re-draw old artwork, but i dont know what, so here i have some from my old account azher1100 and if any of them stand out as something you would to see please let me know, if i forgot an artwork and thats what you'd want let me know:

- The drawing where its me, my roblox avatar, you know like in doors n' stuff, specifically room 50 i believe
- This one really cool concept, where its like mizuki akiyama in front of a mirror thats cracked, and each cracked section is a different one of her upgraped cards, (i made this before even "we escape to survive" was released i THINK??? so yea this could definitely be expanded upon)
- This one drawing with, get this, AN OC. it was one of those ones i made for an emoji contest where i made like some bat-pumpkin-girl with like this spacey but also gothic aesthetic i think?
- Tamari (from qualia automata) nothing special i can say about this one, but i feel like this one would probably flop becasue only like what, two people? are as invested in ghost and pals /6x111 characters as i am (WAIT WHAT ABOUT THAB ART? COMPLETELY OFF TOPIC BUT TO H*LL AND BACK FAN ART?!)
- this was more of a little doodle i made (in my eyes) but Norman from Honey I'm Home? Hes so bbg i love him so much
- So there was this one drawing of vflower (but appetitie of a people pleaser, i think i want to draw ghost and pals' OCs guys) but i never posted it, but i kinda want to try to do it again bc tbh the background was SO FUN to draw, i would post the original as well if i did this.
- Halloween (the furry) shiho, i really like this card
- This one's REALLY old but string gummy from crob??? (hubba hubba 🥰🥰🥰) i realize that most of my old drawings were either pjsk or genshin, i dont want to do genshin at all cuz of their designs

This is all that i can think of, i think im going back into my gnp phase as you can see here, and i apologize
