

This is Kittykat.

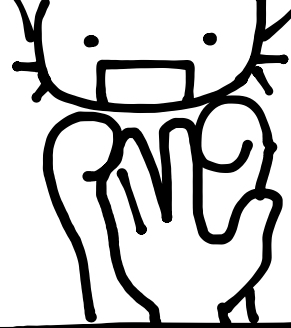

He's a very kind Kitty cat.

purr

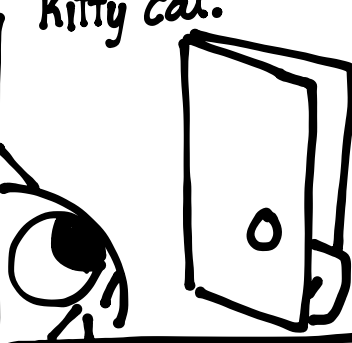

He loves getting pets.

He loves belly rubs.

and he loves his owner.

But when his owner leaves...

So does Kittykat's facade.

He isn't actually the perfect cat.

He smokes tuna blunts...

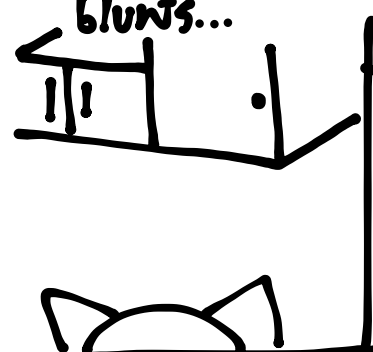

...Sniffs catnip...

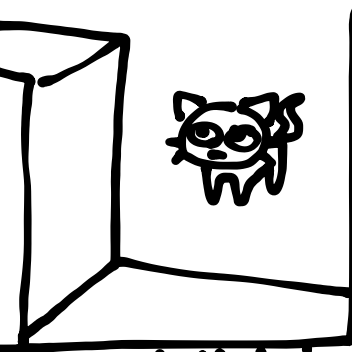

...drinks at pubs...

and comfort eats, all in that order.

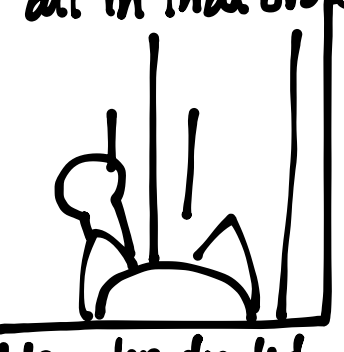

Today his owner is out w/ friends.

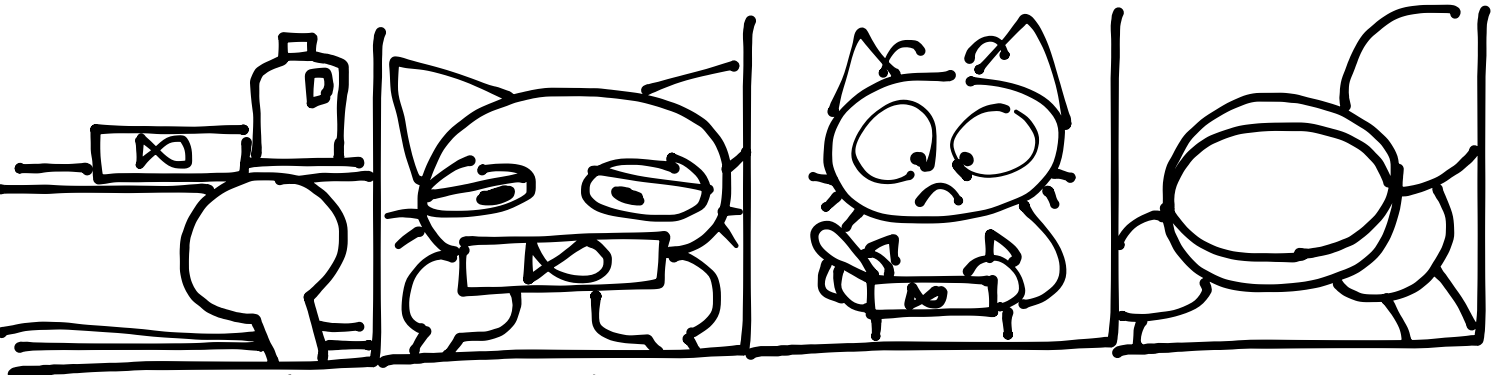

leaving Kittykat alone.

He already finished his blunts.

He already did his line's

and he already drank his heart away.

now he just needed a snack to comfort him

...

...There was no wet food

At least he could eat his dry food.

his food bowl was gone.
