

I saw an animation a few months ago, it was really good. I remembered it today but I couldn't find it. For the past two hours I've been researching and digging through everything I know about the video, the channel, and the oc used in the animation. If you guys know anything, or can find out the channel name and video then you'll have my outmost gratitude.

What I know:

- The channel is very small and has less than 10k subscribers.
- It was a tweening animation, less than a minute.
- The oc was female and had short white hair and a red dress, her name was cherry.
- The YouTuber has other oc's too, they also are named after fruits.
- The song in the background was Murder Plot by KORDHELL.
- I viewed the video on the 17th of October, at 2:17 PM.
- I'm pretty sure the video was titled Murder Plot but I can't seem to find it anywhere.
- Thumbnail was a black background with a spotlight, Cherry was in the middle.
